On Sunday, November 13, 2022, Adarsh Vidya Prasarak Sanstha, Adarsh College and Suhrud : Ek Kalangan organized two programs on the occasion of Children's Day. A standup comedy show 'Chala Hasuya' performed by child actors from her Theater Collage Instituttion and and Ancient Pat - Khel (Board_Game).Workshop under the guidance of ancient sports practitioner and Modi script expert Mr.Pankaj Bhosle, Mr.Sunil Kadam and their colleagues as well as actress Pallavi Wagh - Kelkar and child actors from her Theater Collage Institute.These two programs were organized, with the objective of inculcating in our students value and respect for our rich culture and heritage.

Ms.Shruti Ranade, volunteer from Suhrud gave the introduction of the Prachian Pat – Khel workshop,which was for all ages 10 years and above. Mr.Pankaj Bhosle interacted with the children before starting the actual games. All the childrens & parents from age 7 to 75 participated in this workshop. Mr. Bhosle and his team taught games by introducing about 8 to 10 types of ancient games. The Participants thoroughly enjoyed the workshop they were so engrossed that they did not touch their mobiles for three hours without looking at the clock. Mr. Pankaj Bhosle and Ms. Mamta Bhosle interacted with the parents and answered their questions.

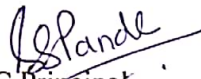

In the next session, comedy show by child artists was a treat for the attendees on the eve of Children's Day. These actors made all the audience laugh out loud by producing high level comedy.

Mr.Varda Tanksalkar, volunteer of Suhrud ,proposed vote of Thanks.. Provision of a well-equipped auditorium in the Adarsh College premises by Adarsh Vidya Prasarak Sanstha made both the programs more colorful. Some of the College staff members, despite of holiday, gave their cooperation to make program successful.
