Five Day Faculty Development Programme

on

'Research Methodology and Professional Ethics' Report

Five Day Faculty Development Programme was organized at Adarsh College of Arts and Commerce, Kulgaon- Badlapur from 16th November 2021 to 22nd November 2021 on 'Research Methodology and Professional Ethics'. The objective of the Faculty Development Programme was:

- To give orientation to the teachers towards overall understanding of the research
- To enable the teachers to undertake new research projects and to write research articles.

The topics of FDP were shared among the senior faculty members. Following were the resource persons and their topics.

Day 1 (16.11.2021) - Introduction to Research Methodology:

Day 1 of FDP was dedicated towards Introduction to Research Methodology which was facilitated by expert in the field of Research in Social Sciences- Dr. Shyamrao Kulkarni. He explained the basic concept of Research as the systematic investigation into a particular subject for deriving unambiguous conclusions for advancement of knowledge in a particular subject. He shed light on the concept Research Methodology as structured and scientific approach towards collection, analysis and interpretation of quantitative or qualitative data to answer research queries or test the hypotheses. He briefly explained the how to choose a proper research methodology, qualitative and quantitative aspects of research methodology, sampling techniques, methods of data collection and analysis. He also elucidated about the proper way of presenting research methodology while writing a research paper or dissertation.

Day 2 (17.11.2021) - Research Design:

The second day of FDP on 'Research Methodology and Professional Ethics' focused on Research Design which was conducted by Dr. Anjali Ghosh. She threw light on the concept of Research design as an overall plan or strategy for conducting research which outlines the methods and procedures that will be used to collect and analyze data in view of the goals and objectives of the study. She explained the importance of Research design as a guiding tool which ensures that the study is conducted in a smooth and systematic manner. She through her exemplary oration explained the types of Research Designs, structure of research design, and the proper way of 'writing a research design' which involves careful planning of the research approach and outlining the research methodology that will be used to answer research questions or testing the hypotheses.

Day 3 (18.11.2021) - Review of Literature

The focal point of the third day of FDP on 'Research Methodology and Professional Ethics' was Review of Literature. Dr. Sandip Bhele was the key resource person. He gave an insight on the concept of Literature review as an overview of the previously published works on a specific subject or topic of research which provides an understanding of the existing knowledge on that subject and allows the researcher to identify relevant theories, methods, and gaps in the existing research. He also explained the five steps procedure of writing literature review appropriately viz. (a) Search for relevant literature on the subject, (b) Evaluate the various sources- inclusive of published and unpublished works, (c) Identify themes, theories, debates and gaps in the existing study, (d) Outline the basic structure in which review will be presented, (e) and finally write the literature review in a structured manner.

Day 4 (20.11.2021) - Data Collection, Interpretation and Analysis

The Key Resource Person for the fourth day of FDP on 'Research Methodology and Professional Ethics' was Dr. Mandar Paranjape. He gave a detailed clarification on Data Collection, Data Analysis and Interpretation. He has described Data collection as a systematic process of gathering observations and original insights into the research problem or area of study. He highlighted the basic pre-considerations of data collection viz. the aim of research, type of data required, the methods and procedures to be used to collect, store, and process the data. Data analysis is the process of collecting, shaping, structuring and analysing data using various statistical and logical methods and techniques and arrive at relevant conclusions. The interpretation of data helps researchers to categorize, manipulate, and summarize the information collected during the research journey in order to answer critical questions. He gave a detailed insight into the methods and techniques of data collection, analysis and interpretation.

Day 5 (22.11.2021) - Ethics in Research

The final day of FDP on FDP on 'Research Methodology and Professional Ethics' focused on the later part of the theme of FDP i.e. Ethics in Research. Dr. Sangeeta Pande as the Key Resource Person gave a philosophical hindsight on this subject. She has regarded Research ethics as a compilation of ethical guidelines that guides the researcher in the scientific and responsible conduct of research. She highlighted the basic ethical principles governing research viz. honesty and integrity, non-maleficence and responsibility, autonomy and beneficence, dignity and justice, confidentiality and privacy, competence and persistence, perception and objectivity.

The teaching faculty enthusiastically participated in the five day Faculty Development Programme.

Effective Use of ICT in Teaching Process
Report

A Five-Day Faculty Development Programme was organized at Adarsh College of Arts and Commerce, Kulgaon- Badlapur from 23th November 2019 to 28th November 2019 on 'Effective use of ICT in Teaching Process'. The objective of the Faculty Development Programme was to make the teachers digitally literate and acquaint them with an overall understanding of use of Information and Communication Technology tools like Smart Board, Google tools, Power Point Presentation in the teaching-learning process. This will enable the teachers to incorporate ICT in the teaching methodology to enhance the effectiveness of the lectures.

The topics of FDP were shared among the senior faculty members. Following were the resource persons and their topics.

Day 1 (23.11.2019) – Introduction and forms of ICT:

The first day of the FDP was dedicated mainly towards providing an insight on the concept of ICT, various components of ICT and its use in education to support, enhance, and optimise the delivery of information and foster positive understanding amongst the learners. The key resource person, Mr. Mandar Thakur shed light on various forms of ICT which includes use of computer software, hardware, mobile-application, data storing and data mining, use of internet etc. He also explained the various Pros and Cons involved in the use of ICT in the education sector.

Day 2 (25.11.2019) – Application of ICT in teaching:

The second day of the FDP mainly focused on Application of ICT in the teaching Process. Dr. Sangeeta Pande was the resource person. She briefed the teachers about how ICT has slowly and gradually influenced various aspects of human life and is bringing about dynamic changes in various sectors of society including education. The Application of ICT tools in Teaching-mechanism has significantly changed teaching learning process. Teaching- learning process is no longer bound by classrooms lectures. Use of ICT has made the learning experience more effective and enjoyable. Owing to the easy accessibility of internet, student community can now verify the information shared by the teachers. The Indian Education System is slowing and gradually getting inclined towards SMART classrooms.

Day 3 (26.11.2019) – Implementation of Google Tools:

The primary focus of the third day of FDP was on implementation of Google Tools in the field of education. Dr. Satish Pharate was the Key Resource Person. He explained how to use the various teaching-learning aids offered by Google Workspace for Education that are tailored for schools and home schools to collaborate, streamline instruction, and keep learning safe. Google Workspace for Education includes user friendly applications such as google Classroom, Google Meet, Google Docs, Google Forms, and Google Chat. He also threw light on various upgrades offered by paid versions of Google Workspace for Education such as attendance tracking in google meet.

Day 4 (27.11.2019) – Use of Smart Board:

The fourth day of the FDP mainly emphasized on the use of SMART Board as an interactive white-board which assists the teachers to create dynamic lectures with the help of various digital tools. Mr. Mandar Paranjape was the resource person. He explained how the touchscreen SMART board allows students and teachers to write on the board and manipulate tools to enhance the teaching learning mechanism. The traditional chalk-duster teaching methodology is being replaced with use digital tools and SMART Notebook software to deliver graphically assisted collaborative lectures. He also gave a practical tutorial on the basic steps involved in use of SMART Board in Classroom.

Day 5 (28.11.2019) – Effective Power Point Presentation:

The final day of FDP was fundamentally directed towards effective use of power-point presentation in the teaching learning process. Mr. Laxmikant Satpute was the resource person. He shed light on the importance of PPTs in academics. A carefully designed and structured power-point presentation can enhance instruction. PowerPoint can be an effective teaching tool to present information coupled with visual aids which will foster positive learners' engagement and enhance the overall classroom learning experience for the students. He also gave a practical demonstration on the use of various tools of MS- Power Point and also highlighted the requisites of creating effective presentation like maximum number of slides per presentation, maximum no. of lines/ words per slide, proper heading, right choice of slide layouts, templates and colour combination, use of animation and audio-visual effects etc. He also explained the importance of synchronizing the actual delivery of information by the presenter with the slides displayed.

'E-Resources with INFLIBNET'
Report

Adarsh College of Arts and Commerce, Kulgaon-Badlapur had organized Five Day Faculty Development Programme on 'E-Resources with INFLIBNET' from 24th July 2018 to 28th July 2018. The objectives of the Faculty Development Programme were to understand usefulness of E-Resources in the teaching process, to get acquainted with the activities of INFLIBNET and to use N-LIST for research work.

The topics of FDP were shared among the senior faculty members. Following were the resource persons and their topics.

Day 1 (24th July 2018):

On the first day the resource person Mr. Mandar Thakur delivered lecture on 'Introduction to E-resources'. In this lecture he elaborated the concept of E-Resources. He explained about the potentiality of the e-resources in capacity of volume of storage and preservation. The usefulness of E-Resources was described. The examples of E-Resources such as E-Journals, E-Books, Data base, online learning resources were given. The session was ended with question-answer session.

Day 2 (25th July 2018)

In the second session, Dr. Sangharsh Gajbe had delivered lecture on 'INFLIBNET activities. He explained the idea behind evolution of INFLIBNET as it meant for modernization of libraries. INFLIBNET is also set for promotion of scholarly communication among academicians and researchers in India. He focussed on INFLIBNET activities under four areas such as E-consortium, Open Access Initiatives, Project and Services as well as library automation.

Day 3 (26th July 2018)

On the third day of Faculty Development Programme, Mr. Laxmikant Satpute extensively talked on 'N-LIST Programme' as part of INFLIBNET activities. He gave information related to available E-resource under N-LIST such as J-Store, Oxford University Press, Cambridge University Press relevant to Commerce, Economics, Management and Humanities.

Day 4 (27th July 2018)

In this session, Dr. Snehal Deshmukh delivered a lecture on topic 'e-PG Pathshala and Shodhganga'. She explained about course material available in the form of e-sources which would be useful for the students for better understanding of subject. She described digital repository of electronic versions of theses and dissertations by students of Indian Universities under Shodhganga project. She explained how to search thesis or dissertation on basis of index of author, title and subject.

Day 5 (28th July 2018)

On the last day of Faculty Development Programme, practical session 'Hands on training of N-LIST e-resources' was conducted by Mr. Laxmikant Satpute at computer laboratory. He explained how to login and how to use the N-LIST resources available such as J-store, Oxford University Press, Cambridge University Press etc. The participants could access the e-resources at their own. It was a knowledge enriching session in which faculty members actively participated. It was also an interactive session.
